About the University

Nagaland University, the 13th Central University was established based on an Act of Parliament of India and received the assent of the President of India on 20th November 1989. The University came into being on September 6, 1994 having jurisdiction over the entire state of Nagaland. At present the University has four campuses, viz. (i) Headquarters at Lumami (ii) Kohima (iii) Medziphema (iv) Dimapur. There are 37 departments offering undergraduate, postgraduate and Ph.D. programmes in different disciplines.

Profile of the Department

The Department of Education was established on 7th September, 1978 as Department of Educational Research, under NEHU, Nagaland Campus. Later it was re-named as Department of Education which came under Nagaland University on 6th September, 1994. The Department of Teacher Education is also under the School of Humanities and Education. This Department offers M.A (Education) and Ph.D programmes and also monitors B.Ed., M.Ed programmes.

Scope of the seminar

Education is the basic requirement for the success of democracy and progress of a country. The rapid changes and increased complexity of today's world present new challenges and put new demands on our education system. The NCTE's two years B.Ed programme should give the rich and in depth experiences to the student teachers to make them reflective practitioners. The seminar will enlighten the participants about the need and importance of quality management and functioning of the present two years B.Ed programme. It also aims at a complete development of the student teachers, particularly in knowledge and skills, in individual care of the learner and also in methods and evaluation designed to facilitate learning. It develops sound knowledge base for student teachers in content areas, develops skills of student teachers to be component enough regarding how to transfer the content material to the students of the schools meaningfully. There is a need for strong linkage of the theory and practice in teacher education. To discuss these issues and challenges in two years B.Ed programme, this national seminar will be organized.
