INVITATION

Department of Chemistry is delighted to announce the event, National e-Seminar on “Chemistry in Emerging Trends of Interdisciplinary Research” scheduled during 18th -20th November 2020 in the Department of Chemistry, Nagaland University. It is our pleasure to invite all to have great learning moments from the well versed scientists, professionals and research scholars.

Researchers working in different subject areas relevant to Chemistry are welcome to present their work in the e-Seminar after confirming their participation by registering as per provision enclosed in this brochure.

ABOUT THE e-SEMINAR

Chemistry plays an important key-role in the centre of science because of its involvement in every discipline of Science. Crossing the boundary of individual domains of expertise, the current trends of interdisciplinary research keep on increasing globally which could comprehend and address scientific challenges with a long vision, enabling to gain more advanced research outcomes in the form of latest scientific discoveries, treatment methods of diseases, new theoretical ideas, protection of environment, drug discoveries, sustainable developments etc.

The aim of the National e-Seminar is an endeavor to provide a platform for enhancing research activities for Faculties, Scientists, Research Scholars and Students from National and International Scientific Communities to share, exchange and deliberate their competent research ideas, experiences and achievements.

ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT

Department of Chemistry, Nagaland University, established in the year 1997, offers both P.G. and Ph.D. courses in different areas of specializations. The faculties of the Department are involved in their own research activities with the well equipped laboratories leading to Research Publications/ Presentations as Invited Lecture, in both National and International Journals/Conferences within the country as well as abroad. The broad research areas of the Department are Green Chemistry, Lanthanide Chemistry, Computational Chemistry, Environmental Chemistry, Heterocyclic Chemistry, Natural Products, Surface Chemistry, Electrochemical Energy Systems, Medicinal Chemistry, etc.

Department has externally funded research projects (both R&D and societal projects) and is also partially funded by DST-FIST in the year 2003 and again for another five years since 2016.
