From the Vice-Chancellor's Desk

Nagaland University is a Central University established on 6th September 1994 by an Act of Parliament (No.35 of 1989) with its headquarters at Lumami in Zunheboto District. It has two permanent campuses at Medziphema and Meriema (Kohima) and a temporary campus at Dimapur. The University has six Schools of Studies, viz. School of Sciences, School of Social Sciences, School of Agricultural Sciences, School of Humanities & Education, School of Engineering & Technology, and School of Management Studies. It has 43 Departments and 5 Centres of Studies offering Under Graduate, Post Graduate, M.Phil., Ph.D. and Diploma/Certificate courses in various disciplines of Arts, Science, Commerce, Humanities, Agriculture Sciences, Engineering & Technology, Management and Law.

Nagaland University has adopted the National Education Policy, 2020 which envisages broad-based accessibility, multidisciplinary, holistic education with flexible curricula, creative combination of subjects, integration of vocational education and multiple entry and exit points with appropriate certification. The University is committed to promote professionalism, creativity and innovation aimed at making a positive impact on education and academic research. Nagaland University also lays emphasis on skill development which is a key area for success in the job market. Our focus is on efficient teaching-learning processes aimed at improvement in the quality of teaching and competitiveness among the students in tune with the changing requirements.

Essential infrastructural facilities are in place in all campuses of the University such as modern classrooms, internet connectivity, library with extensive collection of books and journals to support teaching and research, access to National Digital Library, practical and research laboratories with modern equipment, separate hostels for girls and boys, gymnasium, playgrounds, indoor stadium, auditorium, health centre, cafeteria and other vital amenities for students and campus residents.

As we enter the academic year 2023-24, I convey best wishes to all aspirants seeking admission to various courses in Nagaland University and urge them to seize the opportunity that awaits them and work hard towards a successful and bright future.

(J.K. PATNAIK)
