Recommendation:
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Recommended to the Academic Council for grant of provisional affiliation 2. Compliance letters to be issued to all colleges wherever remarks are given 3. Provisional Affiliation will be ordinarily for a maximum period of 5 years. Thereafter, colleges shall seek permanent affiliation after fulfilling norms such as NAAC accreditation. In the event college does not fulfill eligibility criteria for permanent affiliation, college may either discontinue the said programme/course or seek provisional affiliation for the particular programme/course by paying two times the affiliation fees 4. To maintain standard in the permanent affiliated programme/course, colleges shall submit annual status report such as list of teachers, books, classrooms, lab equipment etc. to the Director, College Development Council. The University may cause inspection of the college, if deemed necessary, and action may be initiated to de-affiliate the programme if found flouting norms. A de-affiliated programme may be considered for re-affiliation on provisional basis by paying three times the affiliation fees. 5. Affiliation fee shall be paid every 5 years for permanent affiliated programme.
